

'Greatest Show On Earth' Announces End Of Circus Tour

'Big Top' Era Comes To Close

PITTSBURGH, July 16 (AP)—Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Circus, America's "Greatest show on earth," today called an end to its circus tour which for years has thrilled millions of youngsters and grownups in nearly every corner of the land.

John Ringling North, said the circus was folding its mammoth tent for the last time tonight after a performance at nearby Heidelberg race track.

"The tented circus as it now exists is, in my opinion, a thing of the past," North said. "We are considering plans for the future which may involve an almost completely mechanically controlled exhibition."

North emphasized the circus will continue, in different form. He said:

Next April

"The all-new 87th presentation of Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey combined shows will open as usual on April 3, 1957, at Madison Square Garden in New York and will play the 1957 season in other air-conditioned arenas all over the United States."

Labor troubles, bad weather and rising costs sounded the death knell for the road show under the giant canvas umbrella.

Earlier this year, two other circuses shut down on similar reasons. They were the Clyde Beatty and King Bros. circuses.

Part of the bankrupt King Bros. Circus was stranded in Stroudsburg, Pa., on its way to southern headquarters at Macon, Ga.

Last week a group of Sarasota, Fla., men formerly connected with Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey purchased the Clyde Beatty Circus, and said they expect to reopen it Aug. 30 with a performance in Albuquerque, N. M.

It would be the last big road circus in America.

The announcement of the end of the "sawdust trail" for Ringling came as thousands of children and adults thronged the midway for an afternoon performance under the acres of canvas "big top."

There was no indication of what will happen to the show's payroll of 800 to 1,000, including top-billed aerial stars and clowns, animal keepers and roustabouts.

North said the circus would return to its winter quarters at Sarasota, Fla. "We are at present busily engaged in completing the world's greatest zoological garden which is now open to the public," he said.

Right up to the last daylight performance, pickets for the Teamsters Union and the American Guild of Variety Artists marched at the entrance to the huge tent.

They said they were campaigning for recognition of their unions. Joseph Kane, an organizer for the teamsters, said: "We had pickets scheduled all along the route."

Like other appearances recently, the show was late getting started. Kane said this was the result of a "deliberate slowdown" by union members employed by the circus as truckers and tractor operators.

Attempt

"We were trying to show them they could pay a better wage and make more money with an efficient work force," Kane said.

It was against this background—and a series of unlucky incidents—that North's announcement came.

Fifteen employees were injured yesterday in two accidents at Alliance, Ohio. At Youngstown and Canton, Ohio, last week muddy grounds threw the show behind schedule. A carload of equipment was derailed at Akron and a performance had to be canceled.

Earlier in the week, muddy grounds balked efforts to get the portable seats into the Big Top at Meadville, Pa. Consequently, for the first time in its history, the circus played to an all-standing audience.

On July 1 in Geneva, N. Y., a sudden wind tore the big tent apart. Fifteen persons were injured.

Closing of the Big Top apparently meant the end of an era in American entertainment—an era that began in the late 19th century.

Vandals Damage 23 Trucks

PHILADELPHIA, July 16 (AP)—Vandals turned a bakery company parking lot into a personal amusement park over the weekend, using delivery trucks as scooter cars.

The reported result was 23 damaged trucks and other property destruction. An official of the General Baking Co. estimated the damage at $15,000.

Senate Votes Aged Grants

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—The Senate tonight voted to increase federal grants to the states for needy aged, blind and disabled persons so they would get at least $5 a month more.

The 62-21 vote was the first test on the long-stymied Social Security bill which passed the House a year ago.

There are no barbers . . . no ticket sellers . . . at Stokes Mill. King Brothers Circus Owner In Hospital

MACON, Ga., July 16 (AP)—What's left of the hard-luck King Brothers Circus was stranded again today, this time in East Stroudsburg, Pa., and its remaining partner, Arnold F. Maley, was in Macon recovering from injuries received in an accident Friday.

Maley was enroute to Macon from Middletown, Conn., for a court hearing when his car struck a utility pole in Leesville, S. C. He was brought to Macon where he is recovering at his home from a broken nose and other injuries.

Durward B. Mercer, Macon lawyer who is receiver in bankruptcy for the circus, said a part of the circus equipment and animals started the move south last week from Middletown where the show had been stranded since a performance June 13.

Other equipment remained in Middletown awaiting transportation to Macon. Arrangements are being made to sell the animals and equipment to satisfy creditors.

Maley and some 15 employees had remained with the circus in Middletown until last week. The other circus partner, Floyd King, left last month after the circus was declared bankrupt to take a job as advance man for Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey circus.

A small unit of the King show was leased in Pennsylvania a month ago to former employees who are now operating it on the road under the name of Barney Brothers. Other circus equipment was left stored at East Stroudsburg.

House Passes Fire Bill

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—The House today passed unanimously a bill permitting establishment of a six-state middle Atlantic interstate forest fire protection compact. The measure, previously passed by the Senate, now goes to President Eisenhower.

The compact would include Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

Previously

Similar compacts were approved previously by Congress for the New England and New York area, southeastern states and the south central area.

Congress was informed that the middle Atlantic states have worked out terms of their compact and legislatures of four states have approved the plan.

Eisenhower administration. The amendment adopted by the Senate, sponsored by Sen. Long (D-La.) and 45 other members, would raise public assistance grants to 2½ million aged persons, 250,000 totally disabled persons, and 105,000 blind persons. It would take effect Oct. 1 this year.

The total additional cost to the federal government is estimated at 208 million dollars annually.

House Launches Debate On Civil Rights Legislation

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—House debate on civil rights legislation opened today with its backers, as expected, winning the first test vote.

The vote, 151-103, was to limit debate to two days. Southern opponents of the bill tried in vain to have the limitation laid down in terms of hours rather than days.

It was only a technical point, one of many which are expected to be raised before the House can get to a final vote, perhaps on Friday. The limitation applies only to general debate, not amendments or side issues.

Indications

Indications were that the House would eventually pass the bill and send it to the Senate where it would die in the rush to adjourn.

The bill has the backing of the Chairman Celler (D-NY) of the House Judiciary Committee. It would permit the U. S. attorney general to file suits on behalf of persons whose voting or other rights he considered to be impaired or threatened. It would also make it easier to bring civil rights cases in federal courts.

Proponents of the bill agreed that its provisions probably would empower the U. S. attorney general to bring suits in support of the Supreme Court decision against racial segregation in public schools.

Opinion
"In my humble opinion it would," Celler told a questioner. "Let's be frank about it."

Rep. Keating (R-NY) said he is "inclined to agree," although the wording of the bill left some doubt.

Celler told Rep. Howard Smith (D-Va.) he thinks the attorney general could bring suit against school board members at the request of an organization such as the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People even if the child barred from a white public school, or his parents, did not request such action.

U. S. Accuses Russia Of Holding Airmen

MOSCOW, July 16 (AP)—The United States tonight accused the Soviet Union of holding a number of American airmen. Some have been missing more than six years.

A U. S. note to the Soviet Foreign Ministry demanded information about them and others.

Planes
It said the U. S. government is informed and is compelled to believe the Soviet Union is detaining military personnel from two U. S. planes.

They were a U. S. Navy Privateer lost over the Baltic April 8, 1950, and a U. S. Air Force B29 that went down on the Sea of Japan or near Kaohatka June 13, 1952.

But Celler said he does not think such suits could be brought against members of legislatures.

Soviet Endorses Plea To End Nuclear Tests

MOSCOW, July 16 (AP)—The Soviet parliament endorsed today a plea from Japanese lawmakers that parliaments all over the world strive for an end to tests of nuclear weapons.

The action was taken after Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov told the Supreme Soviet that the Soviet Union was willing to end the tests but could not obtain agreement from the United States or Britain.

The United States and Britain are opposed to an agreement on ending nuclear tests unless it is made part of an over-all disarmament plan subject to controls and inspection.

Position

The two Western powers took this position in turning down Friday in the U. N. Disarmament Commission Indian-Yugoslav proposals for banning tests. James J. Wadsworth, the U. S. ambassador, said the United States would continue to work for agreement on limitation of tests and safeguarding mankind against dangers of excessive radiation.

Shepilov's speech was his first to the Supreme Soviet. He took over from V. M. Molotov as foreign minister a month and a half ago.

He told the 1,300 parliamentary delegates agreement on an end to nuclear tests could be reached by any one of three methods: Within the framework of the United Nations; by three-party agreement which other nations could join later; separate statements from each government declaring it was abandoning nuclear tests.

"We consider that the question of the prohibition of atomic and hydrogen weapons can be separated from the general problem of disarmament, can be decided independently and not made conditional on the general level of armaments," Shepilov declared.

Shepilov spoke after the Parliament approved an appeal addressed to other parliaments to join with the Soviet lawmakers in demanding an end to the arms race and swifter progress toward disarmament.

Un-American Committee To Open Hearings

PHILADELPHIA, July 16 (AP)—A three-member subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities opens two days of hearings here tomorrow, spotlighting a $5,000 award made to a suburban library which refused to fire an employee whose loyalty had been questioned.

The subcommittee has also subpoenaed two stage personalities, Jack Gilford and Gale Sondergaard, to testify in connection with reported "blacklisting" in the entertainment field. The subject has claimed the committee's attention for several days.

Witnesses

A third phase of the hearings deals with communist propaganda brought into Philadelphia from abroad.

All the hearings will be public. Rep. Walter (D-Pa.) of Easton, who is also chairman of the full committee, will head the subcommittee. His associates are Reps. Harold Velde (R-Ill.) and Gordon Scherer (R-Ohio).

Six witnesses, four of them members of a Quaker group, have been subpoenaed to appear Wednesday when the subcommittee takes testimony on an award by the Fund for the Republic to the Quaker-run William J. Jeanes Library at Plymouth Meeting, Pa.

Government To Return Donation

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—The man who put up $2,500 of his own funds to help the government award a gold medal to Dr. Jonas Salk, discoverer of the antipolio vaccine, would get his money back under a bill the Senate passed today.

The measure now goes to the White House. Saul Lehman, head of a New York printing firm, advanced the $2,500 to pay for the medal after learning that Congress had adjourned last year without making provision to finance it.

Steel Rivals Take Recess

PITTSBURGH, July 16 (AP)—Negotiators trying to settle a 16-day-old nationwide steel strike conferred for about two hours today then recessed until Wednesday so management representatives can meet with "their principals in New York tomorrow."

David J. McDonald, President of the United Steelworkers, said the session produced "no new developments."

John A. Stephens, U. S. Steel Corp. vice president and top negotiator for the industry, said:

Subway Jams Follow In Wake Of Fire

NEW YORK, July 16 (AP)—Another big subway jam boiled up at the evening rush hour today—the aftermath of Wanamaker's week-end fire. But the crush was lighter than this morning's.

The fire was practically out. However, its effects were expected to be felt by 250,000 daily riders of the IRT Lexington line for a week. Fifty million gallons of water from fire hoses knocked out the busy link between Brooklyn and Grand Central Terminal in Manhattan.

The worst evening tieup was at the Times Square Station. A transit patrolman called it a "madhouse."

Double

At both Times Square and Grand Central crowds were twice the normal size.

More than 500 policemen were assigned to Lexington IRT stations to fight for order against a great underground surge of humanity.

In Grand Central, focal point of the tieup, a dozen persons dropped to the concrete platforms as heat, humidity and crowding took their toll. At least one suffered a heart attack.

Meanwhile, the fire still smoldered on underground levels of the tieup, a dozen persons dropped to the concrete platforms as heat, humidity and crowding took their toll. At least one suffered a heart attack.

However, four more foremen were injured during the day—bringing to 220 the number held by smoke or otherwise injured during one of the city's worst fires since the 1920s. More than 600 firemen had a hand in fighting the flames.

Fearful

Fire Commissioner Edward F. Cavanagh Jr. said there was a time when it looked like firemen would have to withdraw for safety's sake and the blaze allowed to rage unhampered.

A new fire broke out during the afternoon in a factory about six blocks from Wanamaker's.

Plane Lands On Safe Note

PHILADELPHIA, July 16 (AP)—A Trans-World Airlines DC-4 landed safely at International Airport here today, 10 minutes after the pilot radioed the airport he was having trouble with the landing gear.

The planes was carrying 35 passengers.

"We are going to consider this whole picture again. We will meet with some of our associates whom we have not seen since June 29."

Asked if that meant the industry would prepare a new settlement proposal, Stephens said "I do not mean to say that."

Sessions

Both union and management held separate sessions with Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation Service, and two of his aides. There was no indication what the mediators discussed, but Finnegan said they were "two-way conversations."

Finnegan said the recess was called to permit industry negotiators to "give a full report to their principals in New York tomorrow."

The industry negotiators met privately with industry's 12-member coordinating committee after today's negotiations.

Management and union negotiators scheduled their next meeting for 2 p.m. EDT Wednesday in Pittsburgh.

Finnegan said that he made a report on the strike situation to Secretary of Labor Mitchell while he was in Washington over the weekend.

The strike has spread idleness to more than 70,000 employees in allied industries—principally railroads and coal mining.

Demands

The 650,000 striking steelworkers left their jobs July 1 to back up union demands for a new contract.

The chief stumbling blocks to a settlement appear to be the length of contract and size of the hourly package. The union has rejected a company proposal of a 52-month pact which the companies said would give workers a 17 2-3 cents hourly package the first year, including a 7.3 cent hourly wage increase.

Secret Of
Clare Boothe Luce
Illness Revealed

NEW YORK, July 16 (AP)—A bizarre diplomatic secret was reported tonight: A long series of illnesses of Clare Boothe Luce, U. S. ambassador to Italy, was caused by arsenic poisoning.

The deadly arsenic came from paint on the ornate ceiling of her bedroom in Rome. It sifted down in tiny amounts of dust during the first 20 months she lived there, getting into her breakfast coffee. In hot weather, she inhaled it daily.

Disclosure
The disclosure was made by Time magazine, published by Mrs. Luce's husband, Henry Luce. Quickly the room was repainted with non-leaded paint and the danger was eliminated.

Defense Lawyer Seeks Poll Results

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C., July 16 (AP)—How Marines are trained—and what 27,000 Marines think of those methods—became a sharp issue in the court-martial of S. Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon here today.

McKeon is the 31-year-old drill instructor from Worcester, Mass., who led six Marines to their deaths last April 8 in water-covered marshland bordering this 5,000-acre Marine training center.

The charges against McKeon include involuntary manslaughter, oppression of recruits by mass punishment, and drinking on duty.

Demand
McKeon's defense attorney, Emile Z. Berman of New York City, demanded that the Marine Corps produce the results of a questionnaire asking Marines and former Marines what they thought were the best methods of training.

Berman said the results of that survey had a direct bearing on the training methods employed by McKeon and others the night he led his 74-man "boot" platoon into the dark waters. Only 68 came back alive.

The lean defense lawyer said he had asked Navy Secretary Thomas to produce the survey, but that the secretary had refused unless he was ordered to do so by the law officer for the court martial, Navy Capt. Irving N. Klein.

Klein said he would reserve judgment on the request but suggested to a startled courtroom that the most direct way of ascertaining the results of the poll would be to put Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, the Marine commandant, on the witness stand. It was Pate who ordered the survey after the tragedy.

Klein also asked Berman if he intended to call Pate as a witness.

No Answer
"I have no answer to that at this time," Berman said.

The defense served a request on the trial counsel, Maj. Charles B. Sevier of Jacksonville, Ill., for the names and home addresses of all men discharged from the Marine Corps from the Parris Island base since last Jan. 1.

Sevier, who is the prosecutor, objected to the request for the opinion poll results on the grounds that the defense had not shown their materiality to the case.

"He (Berman) doesn't claim materiality," said Sevier. "He only 'suspects' materiality."

Berman, a former Air Force colonel, snapped, "I think they are material but how can I tell if the Marine Corps won't let me see them?"

42 Lives Lost In Farm Accidents

HARRISBURG — Loss of 42 lives in accidents involving farm workers and members of Pennsylvania farm families during the first six months of this year is "far too many" when most of the accidents could have been avoided, State Secretary of Agriculture William L. Henning declared yesterday.

As Pennsylvania chairman for observance of Farm Safety Week, July 22-28, he issued the following statement:

"Human failure is associated with nearly every farm accident. Loss of life and limb are the harvest gathered after the seeds of carelessness have been sown.

"For the first half of this year the Pennsylvania Rural Safety Council reports 42 fatalities among farm people, far too many compared with the total of 69 for the entire year of 1955. Scores of others have been permanently or temporarily disabled. Costs in medical care and time lost from food production are terrifically high.

Included

"This year's death toll included six farm boys killed in highway accidents just a few days before their graduation from high school.

"Tractor accidents caused the death of 20 people ranging from 10 to 73 years of age. The other 22 farm fatalities came through falls, drownings, fires, hay mowers, electrically charged wires, logging, a baby choking on a wood screw, an older person choking on orange peel, and so on. A Centre County youth driving a horse and buggy was killed when the rig was struck by a car.

"Not always do accidents 'just happen.' Most are the result of haste, fatigue, indifference, carelessness or lack of clear thinking when 'taking a chance.'

"Industry trains its workers in safety practices. Farm people must train themselves and keep in mind — 365 days of the year — that safety pays in all ways. Safety is the cheapest investment in the world, but it can be made to pay the biggest dividends. Farm Safety Week is our annual reminder that safety practices will make farm life safer, happier and better."

Workers Locate Ancient Cemetery

BOGOTA, Colombia, July 16 (AP)—A 500-year old cemetery of a vanished Indian civilization has been unearthed near here by workmen digging the foundations for a factory.

Tombs contained 20 skeletons and pottery adorned with gold figures were opened before archeologists took over. The pottery is that of the Chibcha Indians, whose civilization was wiped out by the Spanish conquistadores.

Father Butler Knights Of Columbus Presents Award To Manheim For Devotion, Charity

Knights of Columbus, Father Butler Council 4084 last night honored Richard Manheim, 58 S. Green St., East Stroudsburg, for the devotion, the charity and the brotherly love that are manifested in the story of an unmarried youth adopting a Korean boy as his son.

The honor was bestowed during the course of a regular monthly meeting of the Knights of Columbus at the Italian Club. During the period of occupation of foreign lands, and foreign wars, and during this period of flux that has brought so many Americans to meet and become acquainted as soldiers with non-Americans, we have heard, read about, and become very painfully aware of crimes that have been committed by American soldiers on foreign soil.

Under the avalanche of bad publicity one is inclined to think that American soldiers are past masters at the art of pillaging and plunder. American soldiers, sailors and marines are American boys who love their mothers, shop for their wives, played for the local high school football team, went to the local dances, and had to be in by 10:30 or else explain why to their anxiously awaiting father. Deeds by U. S. servicemen point this out better than anything else. If people are so ready to recognize the evil that they do, why not recognize the good? "Do not hide your light under a bushel, rather so let your light shine before men that they might see your good works and glorify your father who is in heaven."

Richard Manheim is just an ordinary American boy, who grew up in East Stroudsburg, was reared in a typical American home, educated in East Stroudsburg schools, went to the service when his country had need of his service, was sent to Korea, and became as thousands of Americans before him and after him, a GI on foreign soil.

And like thousands of GIs before him he met foreign people, foreign customs, foreign language, different color skin. And like thousands of GIs before him he found out that peoples and customs and language and skin color are all surface differences, that are easily learned then easily overlooked. And like thousands of GIs before him he discovered that the most important and the most interesting task and duty with foreigners as with countrymen is that we "love our neighbor as ourselves."

In Korea Manheim met and befriended a little Korean orphan, Jon. When they first met Jon was 10 and being taken care of by the sisters at the Catholic orphanage in Seoul. The two became fast friends and by the time Richard left Korea he had grown so attached to the boy that he promised to do all in his power to bring the lad to America.

Three years of letters, pleas, petitions, red tape, disappointments, failures, hopes shattered, ended when in 1955 young Jon arrived in New York and was met by Manheim, former American GI now attending Muhlenberg College.

The award was made last night so that the good deeds of GIs may be put before the public; that the brotherly love which crosses oceans and color lines may be set before the eyes of our citizenry. In this age of displaying our crimes and in this hour of disunion among the races of the world such meritorious deeds are worth awarded merit.

New York Man Dies In Area

GEORGE PATRICK MELIA, 61, of Long Island City, N. Y., died about 7 a.m. yesterday while a guest at the Kieselberg Motel at 1119 N. Ninth St., Arlington Heights. Dr. Charles H. Rushmore, Monroe County coroner, attributed the death to a coronary attack.

Stroudsburg State Police said victim's body was discovered about 9 a.m. by a friend, Stanley Stacky or Arlington Heights, who entered Melia's room after he was unable to get a response by knocking on the door.

On Floor
Stacky found the victim lying on the floor in his pajamas. Dr. Rushmore later determined that death occurred about 7 a.m.

Investigating Trooper Evan R. Chaplin reported that Melia had been coming to the Poconos on vacation for the last four years.

The body was taken to the William Thomas Funeral Home, and later turned over to a New York City mortician.

Acme Hose Nets $1,409.76 From Display Of Fireworks

ACME HOSE CO., East Stroudsburg, netted $1,409.76 through sponsorship of the fireworks display last week, Committee Chairman Thomas Sexton announced last night.

Receipts totaled $2,773.60 and expenses, including cost of fireworks, were $1,363.84, the committee reported.

Since the display fell far short of the $5,000 goal set by firemen, the committee decided to continue accepting contributions through to the end of August.

Equipment
The $5,000 goal was sought for the firemen's carnival building and equipment fund. Their former building on Day St. was washed away in the flood.

The fireworks display was scheduled originally for Fourth of July but was postponed twice because of rainy weather. During the display, the firemen donated the concession to the East Stroudsburg Civil Defense Fire Department.

Members of the committee who served with Chairman Sexton were Robert Lesoine, publicity; Donald Gage, tickets; James Albert, special gifts; Fred Miller and Carl Michaels, seating.

Anyone wishing to donate to the fund may contact any member of the committee or any other member of Acme Hose Co.

Seip Named To CD Post

GOV. GEORGE M. LEADER, has appointed Clarence Seip, of 28 N. Fourth St., as Stroudsburg's new Civil Defense director to succeed Russell Williams, of 508 Fulmer Ave., who resigned.

Seip was recommended for the post by Chief Burgess Hal H. Harris and the Stroudsburg Borough Council.

Assistant

The borough's new C-D director will be succeeded as assistant coordinator of Auxiliary Police by Howard Strouse of 736 Main St.

Seip worked as an air raid warden in Stroudsburg's First Ward during World War Two.

Two Cars In Collision

A TWO-CAR collision in Hamilton Township early yesterday morning caused a total $350 damage, Stroudsburg State Police reported.

Troopers identified the operators involved as Julian Davis, 19, of Philadelphia, and Benjamin L. Crowers, 27, of Levittown. Neither was injured.

Traveling South

Davis was traveling south on Legislative Route 45021 between Sciota and Neola about 12:30 a.m. when his 1955 sedan skidded on the pavement and crossed over into the path of Crowers northbound 1948 sedan.

$225 Damage In Accident

DELAWARE WATER GAP — A total $225 damage was caused yesterday when two cars piled-up on Route 611, about a quarter-mile west of the Delaware Water Gap Toll Bridge.

Borough Police Chief Fred Decker said the accident occurred when a car operated by Mertie M. Cool, Hollis, N. Y., rammed into the rear of a 1941 sedan driven by Mrs. J. E. Allman of Hackensack, N. J.

Slows Down
Both vehicles were traveling west when Mrs. Allman slowed down to look over directional signs, causing the other vehicle to pile into the rear of her car, Chief Decker said.

There were no injuries, police added.

McCulloch Chain Saw Powerful

VAN D. YETTER, farm implement dealer, Route 402, near Marshalls Creek, would like to prove to you that McCulloch is the most powerful light-weight saw available today.

The McCulloch Super 33 chain saw is a 22-pound package of concentrated woodcutting power. This is the first time that so much horsepower and cutting performance have been built into a tool so light and compact.

The Super 33 competes with saws weighing 50% to 100% more!

For loggers, foresters, and other professional woodcutters, the Super 33 represents the ultimate in small saw performance. The standard model 33 chain saw is an outstanding dollar value. It has all the professional-quality McCulloch features and it sells for the price of a few cords of wood, Mr. Yetter points out.

Horsepower claims cannot take the place of performance. If there is any doubt in your mind about the cutting speed of chain saws, it is easy to make comparative tests.

Go to Van Yetter, your McCulloch dealer, and use any saw in his stock to cut off a section of log, timing the cutting speed. Then, using any other make of saw in the same price or weight class, cut through the same or similar log, and time the cutting speed.

You'll find that dollar for dollar, pound for pound, McCulloch saws outperform all others.

NEW SAFETY CONCEPT—A 167-pound wood block simulating the body of an average automobile driver is shown as it crashes into a 1956 Ford steering wheel, which embodies the new Ford safety concept of packaging the passenger in case of an accident. The second photo shows the wheel as it absorbs the energy of the impact. In the third photo, the block rebounds and shows how the wheel rim protected it from the steering hub. Research at Cornell University medical College shows almost 40 per cent of all injured drivers are hurt on the steering assembly. The wheel is one of five new safety features which are offered—for the first time in automotive history—on 1956 Ford Motor Company cars. You can see all Ford's Lifeguard safety features at Hynes Motors, local Ford dealer, N. 9th St.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Feast or famine — no ideas at all for a column or a baker's dozen too many, that's the way it seems to go. But with a thirty notion of not letting any idea go to waste, no matter how trivial we're going to have the leftovers today.

As for instance, did you know that Sunday was St. Swithins Day or the Day that Mary Goes Over the Mountain, depending on your background. Whichever you call it, the results are the same — if it rains on St. Swithins' grave or if Mary gets her skirts wet going over the mountain, then it will rain for the next 40 days.

Of course, there are degrees of opinion about how damp the grass was on Sunday. In any event, it rained yesterday morning so there'd be only 39 to go anyway.

Of which I hope this is not one on account of all the women golfing at Shawnee today. However, a little rain at strategic intervals doesn't interfere with much of anything. The historical trip for instance, went through several squalls but never when they wanted to be outside looking at things.

Mostly in historical matters, there's a mental, if not an actual, sign saying "Don't touch," but this trip was different. They went inside the blockhouse and felt the thick damp walls; they picked and ate the mulberries from the mulberry tree at Nazareth; and by request, Mrs. Calkins played both the pipe organ and the clava-what-ever-it-was.

On the organ, she played "America" and somehow, spontaneously, everybody started singing. It was a very nice touch. And a very nice taste have mulberries, too. They are the size

Tom Thumb Wedding For July Bazaar

Gilbert — The Women's Guild of Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church will join with other organizations of the church in sponsoring a bazaar and auction to be held July 28, with July 30 set as the rain date. A Tom Thumb wedding will be staged both in the afternoon and at night. Homemade articles will be on sale, and there will be stands for refreshments, for food and vegetables. The affair will be held on the church grounds, and the public is invited.

Plans for the guild's part in the bazaar were discussed at the meeting held on Tuesday night in the pastor's room at the church. Get-well cards were signed by the members and sent to Mrs. Carrie Dunning, Mrs. Andrews, Fern Gehris, Mrs. Clara Gregory and George Smale.

It was announced that the president, Mrs. Rosa Shupp, and several other members plan to attend the Women's Guild Summer Conference at Cedar Crest College, Allentown, July 24-27.

Theme for the program was "Committed Christians" when members were urged to be good stewards of their time, talents and possessions.

Elizabeth Shupp was in charge of devotions and Charlotte Booth was pianist. Secretary Elda Dunning and acting treasurer, Violet Gurskey, gave reports.

Attending the meeting were: Mrs. Lydia Deibert, Mrs. Florence Dreisbach, Miss Emma Meitzler, Mrs. Stella Kreger, Mrs. Margaret Schubert and guest, Mrs. Mabel Anglemeyer, Mrs. Beulah Gregory, Mrs. Helen Dunlap, Mrs. Ora Everett, Mrs. Ethel Gehris, Mrs. Rosa Shupp, Mrs. Violet Gurskey, Mrs. Pauline Frable, Mrs. Charlotte Booth, Mrs. Eva Frable, Miss Elda Dunning, Miss Grace Gregory and Miss Elizabeth Shupp.

DAR Leaders Planning For New Year

The executive board of the Jacob Stroud Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has not been idle during the summer recess of meetings. They met recently at the home of their new regent, Mrs. Howard R. Flagler Jr., on North Sixth St., to plan for the year's activities.

The program committee has also had a meeting at the home of the first vice regent and program chairman, Mrs. Dale Learn, preparing programs for the year. Mrs. Flagler met with the committee which includes Mrs. Horace G. Walters, Mrs. Harold J. Pine and Miss Mary Kistler.

Mrs. Warren F. Mikels is the music chairman for the coming year.

Hope Still Alive For Guest Home

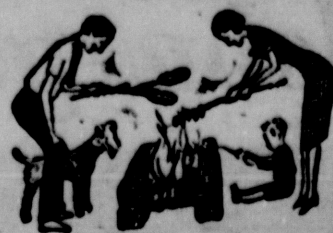

Struggling to keep their option on a property on which they hope to establish a Guest Home for the Needy Aged, members of the Women's Association of Allied Beverage Industries have managed to have the option extended until July 23.

The property involved includes a furnished oil-heated home on an 82-acre tract of land. They have raised part of the necessary funds, but not enough to complete negotiations. Through their secretary, Mrs. Rose Smith, they have issued an appeal to those interested to mail contributions to Operation Needy-Aged, RD3, Box 4, East Stroudsburg.

Unless these additional funds are forthcoming, Mrs. Smith said, they will lose their option. The project is sponsored by the WAABI's, whose aim is to establish a non-sectarian, non-profit guest home for the Needy Aged. Room and board for about 18 persons would be available for about $50 a month, and the guests would share in running the establishment.

The project is independent of the county-wide committee set up to study the establishment of a Home for the Aged III in the county.

THE RECORD

By Bob Clark
Sports Editor

FISH stories are a dime a dozen but the one concerning a Daily Record photographer is the best we've heard, thus far, this angling season.

It seems the DR lens expert had just finished an angling chore along a canal when he stepped in front of the door of his car. His fishing buddy came up in the rear and asked the flash bulb laddie to move aside so he could open up the door of the vehicle.

The photographer obliged backing up into the canal. Moral of story, if any. If you can't get your catch by hook, somebody else will use you splashingly as bait.

Walt Stem, former East Stroudsburg High School basketball coach, will return to coaching ways again next fall after an absence of a few years at Valley Stream, L. I. High School.

Stem, who left this vicinity not too long ago, is currently working a summer hitch at Bill Altier's Marshall Creek emporium of good food.

Jack Hill, managing editor of the Daily Record, got drafted into service as a chaperone for the 90 or more Stroudsburg Little League players who invaded New York City over the weekend to glimpse the Yankee and Cleveland Indians American League clash.

Hill drove several of the Little Leagueers to the Stroudsburg Y.M.C.A. in time for the departure to the Gotham Gotham. But when he arrived at the bus take-off point, one of the LL officials prevailed upon him to join the entourage to help take care of the boys.

Being a ball fan of a way back and a booster of youngsters' extracurricular activities, Jack accepted.

Add off the record: Granny Hamner's three-day rest at High Point Inn, Mt. Pocono, during the All-Star game respite for non-playing major leaguers must have been just what the doctor ordered for the Philadelphia Phillie shortstop.

Prior to the All-Star classic, Granny wasn't hitting the size of his hat. But since the three-day "vacation" the Phil infielder has been clipping the ball at a rapid pace. More noticeable too is that Granny is knocking in runs, something he hasn't been able to do consistently all season.

Stroudsburg High School is still looking around for a replacement for Bill Peck, recently resigned assistant football coach.

Rumors has it that one of the leading figures in the area's sports world would take the position if the "figures" were right.

Incidentally, head Mountaineer grid coach John Whitehead is itching for the football campaign to get under way. Big John is biding his time these days taking a census of house-hold water output in the borough.

All his teammates were pleased and duly impressed when Stan Musial received the Sporting News Award as the Player-of-the-decade, but Vinegar Bend Mizell, St. Louis Card star southpaw, gave it the dead-pan treatment.

"That ain't no such," he shrugged. "It only means he's been on a 13-year hitting streak."

Hazleton Ousts Stroudsburgs-Barrett BR Stars 7-6

Meet Bangor For '2' Title Tomorrow

VALLEY ALL-STARS of Hazleton struck for two runs in the sixth inning and then held on for a 7-6 victory over Stroudsburg-Barrett's All-Stars in the first round of the sudden death elimination of the District Two Babe Ruth Tournament at Gordon Giffels Field last night.

The Hazleton nine's sixth frame outburst broke a 5-5 deadlock and gave the visitors a two-run pad to take into the final inning. Stroudsburg-Barrett rallied for a run in the last canto but couldn't muster enough power to reknit the count.

By winning, Hazleton moved into the final round for the District Two Babe Ruth crown. They will meet Bangor's BR stars at Bangor Memorial Stadium tomorrow at 6 p.m. for the title.

More than 200 fans watched Stroudsburg-Barrett overcome a run deficit and knot the count at 5-all with a three-run rally in the fourth inning.

S-Run Rally
A two-run double down the third base line by Larry Stanner produced two for S-B, while a single by Bob Herman knocked in the tying run.

Herman paced the locals at the plate with three hits, good for a trio of RBIs. Dale Metzger was the only other two-time hitter for S-B.

Paul Frailey started and finished on the mound for Stroudsburg-Barrett. The Scotrun right-hander hurled a good enough ball to win most games but faulty fielding by his mates led to his downfall. He was touched for seven hits, most of them coming after a S-B player set up a possible rally by the invaders.

Greg Gregasvith, the second of two hurlers used by Valley was the winning pitcher. He took over for Wagner in the fourth frame and finished out to gain the triumph.

HIDDEN BALL TRICK WORKS — Johnny Schoonover, Stroudsburg-Barrett Babe Ruth All-Star team third baseman, pulls away after tagging out Hazleton's Jim Maronak following a "hidden ball" trick by Schoonover yesterday in the District Two Babe Ruth runoffs at Gordon Giffels Field. Schoonover held the ball off third and when the Hazleton player stepped off the bag, Johnny touched him. The play was one of the highlights of the contest in which the visitors edged and ousted S-B's All-Stars by a 7-6 count. (Staff Photo by MacLeod)

Aaron's 11th HR Snaps Tie To Give Braves Win Over Bucs

MILWAUKEE, July 16 (P)—Henry Aaron blasted his 11th homer of the year in the fourth inning today to break a 1-1 tie and give the National League-leading Milwaukee Braves a 2-1 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates and a string of seven straight victories.

The victory, right-hander Bob Buhl's 11th against four defeats, made it a clean sweep of a three-game series and eight in a row for the Braves over the team that had been a jinx for the Milwaukeeans for the last two seasons.

Buhl, striking out four batters, including two in the fifth inning, was seldom in trouble. He yielded seven hits, one of them Frank Thomas' 16th homer of the season.

Lumber Output Shows Increase

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—National production of lumber totaled 3,423,000,000 board feet during May 1956, the National Lumber Manufacturers Assn. reports.

That output was nine per cent above April this year but virtually the same as May 1955.

Viewing the Screens

IT IS INDEED SAD to see that one of the country's great institutions, the Circus, is practically a thing of the past. King Bros., and the great Ringling Bros. are going out of business.

It is regrettable that television has been one of the contributing factors to the end of the circus. As Leonard Randolph said in his article yesterday, you cannot throw peanuts at a television screen. And as it was noted in this office, our grand-children will probably never see a circus.

All the vicious entertainment of the screen will never recapture the wonder of live elephants or the tense atmosphere under the big top when the acrobats are flying high.

Tonight's Shows

Congressman Francis E. Walter, of Easton, and chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, will be seen on the air to-night at 10 on Ch. 2. The committee's session, held in Philadelphia this morning, has been filmed and will be reported by Gunnar Back.

Joe E. Brown will star in Summer Originals "Country Store," which tells how a store owner helped gain acceptance for an immigrant family who moved into their small town. On Chs. 6 and 7 at 9 p. m.

Cavalade Theater will present "Man of Glass" on Chs. 6 and 7 at 9:30. Robert Strauss will play Siegel, an immigrant who amasses a fortune as a glass maker.

Also at 9:30, the tender story of a small town school teacher who believes her life is over because of a fiancé is lost in Korea, will be told in "The Waltz" with Ann Bancroft, Warren Stevens and Peter Graves . . . on Chs. 2 and 10.

Two Late Shows tonight: At 11:15 on Ch. 2, Alec Guinness will star in "The Man in the White Suit" with Joan Greenwood. At 11:30, a trio beginning with "Crossroads" with Sir Cedric Hardwicke in the story of a cynic in the French Revolution who tried to play both sides; second, "Drawing Room A," the romance between a beautiful girl and her psychiatrist when she has an amnesia attack; and following that, the comedy of a girl who gets the man she wants by pretending to want another . . . "Indirect Approach" it is aptly titled.

Sports

One baseball game on TV tonight only: The Yanks against the Tigers on Ch. 11 at 8:10.

Summer Theater

"The Fifth Season" plays this week at the Pocono Playhouse with Chico Marx. "Desperate Hours" opens tonight at Bushkill.

Current Movies

"The Eddy Duchin Story" finishes tonight at the Sherman; also the last night, "The Swan" at the Grand. At the Blue Ridge Drive-In, "Hilda Crane" tonight and tomorrow; "Teaserama" and "Varetease" at the Pocono Drive-In.

Nixon's Father Enters Hospital

FULLERTON, Calif., July 16 (AP)—Frank Nixon, 77, father of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, was taken to Cottage Hospital at 4 a. m. today, suffering from recurrence of a stomach ailment.

A spokesman for the family said Nixon was hemorrhaging from stomach ulcers and being given transfusions. The spokesman quoted Nixon's physician as saying that his condition was "satisfactory."

Craft Fair To Be Held At College

NINTH ANNUAL State Craft Fair and Exhibit will be held for the second year at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

The Fair is scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 27-29 and is free to the public.

There are over 1,000 members of the Pennsylvania Guild of Craftsman in 16 chapters throughout the state. Craftsmen from the various chapters will enter their best works in the exhibit in competition for prizes.

After the judging countless items will be for sale.
Demonstrations
Each day of the Fair, there will be demonstrations of many types of crafts, such as pottery, weaving, wood working, jewelry, rug making, leatherwork, tin painting, tray decorating, silk screening and ceramics.

The Pennsylvania Guild of men has been a leader in the handicraft movement of America. It was organized to encourage a greater interest in the study and practice of handicrafts in Pennsylvania and adjacent areas; to cooperate with all agencies and individuals in furthering a broader participation in and appreciation of the crafts; to assist the handicraft worker through group meetings, publications and exhibitions; to secure information on sources of materials, market requirements and sales outlets; and to strive to raise and maintain a high standard of design and craftsmanship for its members.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your future. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 6. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
